

NO BUDGET CUTS
NO TUITION HIKES
NO POLICE ON CAMPUS

Our non-violent takeover of the CUNY Graduate School is part of a coordinated effort of CUNY students in protest of Cuomo's proposed $92 million budget cut, a $500 tuition hike, and massive cuts in financial aid. We are fighting against the proposed firing of 800 adjuncts, most of whom are graduate students, as well as faculty and staff layoffs.

Show your solidarity. Join the struggle.
Your voice counts.

Our immediate demands:

- 1) No police intervention and/or interference in CUNY student strikes.
- 2) An open meeting with Chancellor Ann Reynolds to discuss the use of police and the budget crisis.
- 3) Longer library hours, increased services, more books purchased, unrestricted interlibrary loans.
