

Voicing Student Activism: Bridging Theory and Practice

Wednesday, March 17th

2-4 PM

215 Hunter West

Join us in strategizing and inspiring a new generation of student leaders who will continue a legacy of student activism on Hunter's campus.

Food will be provided.

What does it mean to voice yourself both within and beyond the classroom on campus?

A panel of Hunter student activists share their insights and experiences on bridging the relationship between the classroom and activism in organizing around issues of race, gender, class, and sexuality in order to effect real change at Hunter.
