Dear Irwin:

Thank you for your help in saving Hostos. You shared our concern for survival and you were willing to express this concern on our behalf. The students, staff and faculty of Hostos are indebted to you now, and will continue to be for generations to come.

I am sure that the continuing growth of Hostos and its contribution to the community will make you prouder of your efforts to save the college than you are now.

Cordially,

Cándido
